MRS. JOSEPH STANLEY JOHNSON
the former Miss Betty Lou Cheatham

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Betty Lou Cheatham to Mr. Joseph Stanley Johnson took place Saturday afternoon, December 3,1977, at 3:00 o'clock in Reedy Spring Baptist Church in Spout Spring.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Douglas Cheatham of Spout Spring, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Jr. of Appomattox.

The Reverend J. E. Simpson, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white sheer woven nylon, lined in acetate tafetta, trimmed in nylon and acetate chantilly-type lace, empire style. The bodice was finished with a stand up collar and long slim sleeves. Lace appliques and iridescent sequins highlighted the bouffant skirt and full apron-style back. The headpiece was a satin cap bordered with lace and white rosebuds, attached to a chapel-length train of nylon net veil edged in lace. Her bouquet was of red silk roses, showered with baby's breath, centered with a white orchid, and accented with greens and lace streamers.

Miss Ramona G. Campbell of Evington, neice of the bride, was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant.

The maid of honor wore a evening length gown fashioned of red polyester interlock knit with a high fitted bodice. The dress featured a jewel neckline, full-length puffed sleeves with buttoned cuffs, and a fitted and slightly flared skirt. The gown was highlighted by a yoke with bias self ruffle, a deep dust ruffle at the hemline, and a white flop hat trimmed with red roses. She carried three long stemmed white silk roses, coordinated with greens, baby's breath and lace streamers.

The bride's mother wore a blue street length dress and a corsage of white silk roses.

The groom's mother wore a red street length dress and a corsage of white silk roses.

Mr. J. P. Johnson, Jr. of Appomattox was best man for his son. Ushers were Mr. Walter L. Williams, Jr. and Larry Ingo, both of Appomattox.

Miss Janet Booth of Spout Spring was pianist.

Mrs. Preston W. Tuck of Lynchburg, directed the wedding and Mrs. Katie Cheatham of Spout Spring, registered the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Cheatham entertained with a reception in the church social hall following the ceremony.

Mrs. Shirley Campbell of Appomattox; Mrs. Patricia Gunter of Forest, sister of the bride; Mrs. Nancy Doss of Oakville, sister of the bride; Mrs. Shirley Doss of Oakville, sister of the bride; Miss Angela Campbell of Evington, neice of the bride; and Mrs. Becky Asal of Farmville, sister of the bridegroom, served as hostesses at the reception.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School. The groom is a graduate of Appomattox County High School. He attended Chowan Junior College and Liberty Baptist College.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home at Spout Spring.

Miss Kytle Weds Mr. Seargent

Janice Lisbeth Kytle of Richmond, daughter of Mrs. Audrey Kytle and the late Fred J. Kytle of Charlottesville, was recently married to Anderson Lee Seargent, also of Richmond.

The bridegroom is the son of F. T. Seargent of Appomattox and Mrs. Helen P. Bannett of Florida.

The Rev. W. Duvall officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a floor length empire waist gown of candlelight voile with a scoop neck accented by lace overlay and seed pearls with a matching belt.

Ushers were John Hagelman of Richmond, Jackson Kytle of Columbia, Maryland, and Glenn Terry of Nokesville.

A reception was held in Richmond.

The bride is a graduate of Medical College of Virginia and received a graduate degree from Virginia Commonwealth University. She is employed at Crippled Children's Hospital.

The bridegroom attended Virginia Commonwealth University and is employed by F. T. Seargent, land surveyor.

After a wedding trip to Nova Scotia, the couple will live in Richmond.

To Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hudson will celebrate their 25th Wedding Anniversary on Christmas Eve with an Open House at their home from 2 to 5 p.m.

All relatives and friends are invited to the Open House.
